Going out to learn or teach

عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ (رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ) عَنِ النَّبِيِّ (صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيهِ وَ سَلَّمَ) قَالَ:

((مَنْ غَدَا إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ لاَ يُرِيدُ إِلاَّ أَنْ يَتَعَلَّمَ خَيْرًا أَوْ يُعَلِّمَهُ كَانَ لَهُ كَأَجْرِ حَاجٍّ تَامًّا حَجَّتُهُ.))

أخرجه الطبراني في 'المعجم الكبي' ، وقال الشيخ الألباني في 'صحيح الترغيب' :"صحيح".

From Aboo Umaamah-radiyallaahu `anhu: from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) that he said:

<<Whoever goes out to the mosque, not intending except to learn some good or to teach it, then for him shall be reward like that of a person who performs Hajj, whose Hajj is complete.>>

Reported by at-Tabaraanee in 'al-Mu`jamul-Kabeer'(8/111/no.7473)

Shaikh al-Albaanee said in 'Saheehut-Targheeb'(no.82): 'Saheeh'.

Translated by Aboo Talhah Daawood ibn Ronald Burbank